BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE AND THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.—Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Wheever reads furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the old world, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American Publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they re-publish, and the very low prices at which they are of-fered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz: THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE. In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately eral, that he has resumed the mercantile business in the town of Wilmington, and has just opened, at his new stand, on the corner of Water and Princess Streets, an entire new stock of view" Whig; and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. HANNA, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster, though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster." it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued. The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals, Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition. For any one of the four Reviews .... .... . $3 00 per annum For any two ..... 5 00 For Blackwood's Magazine.... For Blackwood and three Reviews...... 9 00 For Blackwood and the four Reviews ..... Payments to be made in all cases in advance.
